

LIGHTWAVE imitation rock

Custom made climbing walls
Seamless climbing surfaces

LIGHTWAVE signs of quality

SAFETY

- Construction system designed by Entre-Prises' in-house technical department in accordance with the European Standard for Artificial Climbing Structures (EN12572).
- Seamless surface without any sharp edges or visible joints.
- Individual top-rope system with screwgate and snapgate carabiners featuring easy-clip gates and shrouded noses.
- Impact resistant. Glass Resin Panels provide strength and stability to all designs.

QUALITIES

- Recreate any rock formation, feature or style of climbing. Broader shapes are made and supplemented with approximately 50% 'Freeform' featuring.
- Possible to include Leader Placed Protection Cracks. The placing of traditional climbing equipment can be practised.
- The wall is equipped with leader protection points to allow ground-up ascents of each climbing line.
- 8 to 18 bolt-on hold inserts /m2 subject to the level of featuring specified.

AESTHETICS

- Custom made and striking designs. Perfect imitation of natural rock.
- Approximately 50% level of Freeform featuring sculpted into each square metre.
- Custom made paint scheme, complimenting the building and other surfaces.
- Complete and continuous climbing surface with no visible joints.
- Custom made construction and seamless integration with the existing building and other climbing wall surfaces.

DURABILITY

- Product guaranteed for five years when coupled to annual maintenance agreement.
- One maintenance visit / inspection per year recommended.
- Threaded screw inserts, do not spin, do not fall out.
- Perfect for Outdoor use. Stainless steel fixings used for these installations.